Greetings, hope everyone is enjoying the moisture we are getting, even though it's pretty gloomy and dreary.

I don't have a lot to report this month that you haven't already gotten e-mails about, but there are a few things going on. I would like to announce that Veronica Vigil and Cheyenne Barela are currently in the process of becoming the new leaders of the Columbine Club in Walsenburg. As soon as they complete their volunteer certification process they will officially be taking over the club. Thanks to John and Marcy Freeburg for serving as the club leaders over the past few months. Your hard work and dedication is greatly appreciated.

Don't forget – the 4-H re-enrollment deadline for next year is December 13th. If you participated in 4-H this year and want to continue your membership without interruption, you must re-enroll and pay next year's fees by December 13th – NO EXCEPTIONS! 4-H Online will officially re-open on October 16th so you can get into your accounts and re-enroll.

Also don't forget – The annual Huerfano County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held this coming Sunday, October 14th at 6:30 pm at the 4-H Barn in La Veta. Please join us for a great meal and awards presentations.

Finally, I would like to congratulate everyone for a much better year of record books than we have had in the past. Most of the books were acceptable and only a few had any real issues. So, thanks for a much better effort, makes grading the books much easier and more enjoyable.

Carl Beeman, Extension Director
